An offer to visit any of your non-Christian or seeker friends

Our English Congregation is starting the Everyday Evangelism (EV2) evangelism trainers training on Tuesday at 7:00 pm. We'll be meeting every Tuesday night for about 6 months. Part of the meeting every week is called "On the Job Training" (OJT) when we will go outside to share the good news with people at parks, malls, subways, coffee shops, etc. We also want to visit homes or meet with the non-Christian/seeker friends of people in the church.

Are there any people that you would like our team to visit? We could either go to their homes, or meet them informally in a coffee shop or restaurant. We would prefer the meeting to be on a Tuesday evening, but if that is not convenient, just let us know and we can schedule on another night.

There are many reasons why you may want us to visit one of your non-Christian friends, co-workers, schoolmates or relatives, including...they are spiritual seekers; they have been going to church for a long time but have never heard the gospel shared clearly, they are curious about the Christian faith or about our church, they would simple like someone to pray for them because of a large issue in their life (relationship problems, work problems, school problems), they are new to our city and church, they had some questions about the Christian faith, they are elderly and lonely, they are having physical problems, etc. Don't worry, we won't "shove the gospel down their throats." For example, we're perfectly okay with simply sitting and listening and then praying for them at the end without saying a word. Please feel free to contact Pastor Kwan (cell: 647-281-3695) or Rev. Ted (cell: 416-571-6680) to schedule a visit.

ASK THE PASTORS

Q: In Amos 4:4, it seems that God encouraged the Israelites to sin and to sacrifice at the same time. Why?
 A: Actually, sacrifice in 4:4 does not refer to the atonement of the sin. The northern kingdom did not obey God's will that only the temple in Jerusalem would be the only place for worship and sacrifice. Instead, they chose Bethel and Gilgal and other places as the seat of idolatrous worship. Even though they were proud of their religious ardour, they actually increased their sin against God. For our contemporary Christians, this is a warning that we should discern God's will in His word before we are led astray by our seemingly religious fervor.

Our Speaker today: Dr. Gary Nelson (President, Tyndale University College & Seminary)

Dr. Nelson was the former General Secretary of Canadian Baptist Ministries (CBM) our denomination's Mission agency, and was a pastor in western Canada for many years. A recognized urban missiologist, he has authored and presented numerous papers that focus on theological and missiological ecclesiology. His writings include a book entitled Future Faith Churches: Reconnecting with the Power of the Gospel for the 21st Century co-authored with Don Posterski, Borderland Churches: A Congregation's Introduction to Missional Living, and his most recent book entitled Going Global: A Congregation's Introduction to Mission beyond our Borders co-authored with Gordon King and Terry Smith.
