If you would like more info about the church or prayer for any issues, feel free to complete the REQUEST CARD in the pew and deposit in the offering bag or box in the lobby or give it to an usher. You may remain anonymous if that is your preference. We promise to bring all prayer requests to the Wednesday prayer meeting and will pray for what you've written.

- The first Wednesday night Prayer Meeting of each month will be dedicated to our 2012 theme, "Repentance & Revival"
- There is a Prayer Workshop that starts at 7:15pm on Wednesdays in the Mezzanine
- 11:00 am Sunday Prayer Meeting will now meet in the basement (room B1).

AN OFFER TO VISIT YOU!

Every week, there is a section in the bulletin entitled "Ask the Pastors," where the pastors take turns answering questions raised from the Bible. However, we understand that we do not address more fundamental questions that some of you may be asking, such as, "Who is Jesus? Why did he have to die on a cross? What does this have to do with me?"

The evangelism team realizes that it may be difficult for some of you to find someone who is willing to listen to and to chat with you about your questions pertaining to Jesus. And so, if you or someone you know would like to know more about who Jesus is and what he came to do, please email

ASK THE PASTORS

Q: In Isaiah 45:7 God states, "I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster; I, the LORD, do all these things." Is God the author of evil?

A: Numerous biblical texts flatly declare that God is not, and could not be, the author of evil. For example, Deuteronomy 32:4 declares that "his works are perfect and all his ways are just. [He is] a faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he." Similarly, Psalm 5:4 notes, "You are not a God who takes pleasure in evil." Consequently, if we read the Bible in its totality, it pronounces that God is without evil or any pretense of evil. The best way to look at this passage in Isaiah is to see it as affirming that God can control "darkness and disaster," such as the darkness that plagued the Egyptians (cf. Exodus 10:21-23).

PARKING

Due to our annual Vacation Bible Camp (Aug. 7 to Aug.17) we need the parking lot for children's outdoor activities. For those who use the NTCBC parking lot during the weekday's office hours, you are asked to park your vehicle on the west side of the parking lot (at the side adjacent to Yorkview Heights Baptist Church).

BAPTISM

Are you a believer in Jesus Christ but not yet baptized?

Baptism is a simple act of obedience to Christ's commands and an obligation for all His disciples. This year NTCBC will be having a joint baptism on Sun. Dec. 23 in the afternoon. Those interested in joining this solemn and joyful occasion are encouraged to contact Deacon Norm Seto (n.k.seto@gmail.com) as soon as possible in order to join the Sept. Baptism Class.
